

North Logan City Library

Non-resident Cards

Non-residents can purchase a library card for $125 per household.

The terms of the North Logan City Non-resident Fee Card would be as follows:

- Multiple cards will be available to a household for the $125, including adult children living with parents.
- Unrelated people living in one household must purchase separate cards.
- Refunds are not available for partial period usage.
- The card expires at the end of the purchase period.
- All resident policies apply to non-resident cardholders.

Addendum Information:

- Payment for non-resident cards can be made either by paying $125 for the year or $35 every three months.
